DREAM OF MEMORY

C. M. TRAVER.

Dolente e con Espressivo.

How joys have fa - ded since we met! Friends change or die, and some forget!

Oh, why, sad mem'-ry, wilt thou cling To that dear name I love to sing!

Entered according to Act of Congress AD 1854 by Firth Pond & Co in the Clerks office of the District Court of the Southern District of New York.

While sorrow's tears, like gen - tle rain, But make the past look green a - gain!

That vision of my youth's glad dreams, Which cres. Love once deck'd in fair - est beams? rall.

Then cling, 'sad mem' - ry, fond - ly cling

Ah, well, fond mem' - ry may'st thou cling

To that dear name I love to sing! Then cling, sad mem' - ry

To that dear name I love to sing! Ah, well, fond mem' - ry fond - ly cling To that dear name I love..... to sing!

may'st thou cling ritard. To that dear name I love..... to sing!

I would not tell thee all I've borne,
Thy yet kind heart perchance would mourn,
And oh, to show thy heart one pain,
I'd bid them all in mine remain!

Then cling, sad mem'ry, fondly cling,
To that dear name I love to sing!

4

Yet I would ask thee, when I'm gone,
Give but one thought to me alone;
The idle thing will cost thee nought,
And be to me so sweet a thought!

Then cling, sad mem'ry, fondly cling
To that dear name I love to sing!

5

But other friends will soon be thine;
The gay, false-hearted would be mine:
They smile in vain, I know but one!
Dream on, sad mem'ry. I'm alone!

Ah, well, fond mem'ry may'st thou cling,
To that dear name I love to sing.
